CPAAC provides an opportunity for alumni to stay connected and informed with the Chandler Police Department through ongoing education and additional presentations.

Additionally, CPAAC provides the opportunity for Citizens Academy alumni to “give back” by being ambassadors of goodwill between the community and Chandler Police Department. This includes activities such as volunteering during community events, spreading the knowledge gained during both the Citizens Police Academy and ongoing updates/presentations, participating in fundraisers to aide our police in certain situations, and more.

A CPAAC representative will attend your graduation ceremony to provide more information, as well as answer any questions you may have.

Citizens Police Academy

Chandler
Police Department

Chandler Police Department's "Citizens Police Academy" (CPA) is a no-cost program offering Chandler community members an inside look at their Police Department and law enforcement operations. The CPA provides participants with an understanding of the operations and resources of the Chandler Police Department. Participants will interact with police executives, veteran officers, and civilian employees during the academy. The goal of the CPA is to provide a greater awareness and understanding of law enforcement's role in our community.

Citizens Police Academy

History

On September 21, 1994, the Chandler Police Department began its first Citizens Police Academy. A revolutionary concept in Law Enforcement and Police/Community Relations, the academy was created as part of the continuing program to develop citizen awareness and understanding of the role of law enforcement. It is designed for citizens of all backgrounds and occupations.

The goal of the Citizens Police Academy is to give citizens a better understanding of the guidelines within which an officer functions and a better understanding of why officers handle situations as they do. The academy combines instruction in police procedures and theory with practical hands-on scenarios.

The Citizens Police Academy continues on today, towards Chandler Police Department's commitment of community policing.
